FROM D.J. JONES

The question was asked of me: What does homelessness mean to you?

I have a soft spot in my heart for the homeless because they may be without a home and not as clean as many would like them to be, but they are human beings and should be treated that way. Major cities cost of living is the main reason for the ridiculous amount of homeless on the streets today. I want there to be a care for them like it is for your own and it starts with me.
With my foundation, I want to spread the love and show them they are not alone. It is my duty as a human being to use my platform to help those who are less fortunate by giving them hope, love and a helping hand.

MISSION STATEMENT

To empower and encourage youth in underserved communities, including homeless and foster care kids, to overcome adversity by teaching them leadership, discipline, and healthy lifestyle skills in a safe, fun environment, and help kids overcome difficult housing situations.
