MAULDIN READY TO COUNT IN THE 2020 CENSUS

In mid-March, people will begin to receive a notice in the mail to complete the 2020 Census. This year, for the first time ever, the U.S. Census Bureau will accept responses online, but you can still respond by phone or mail if you prefer. Responding should take less time than it takes to finish your morning coffee.

By April 1, every home will have received an invitation to participate in the 2020 Census. The decennial census will collect basic information about the people living in your household.
When completing the census, you should count everyone who is living in your household on April 1, 2020 - officially known as Census Day.

The Census Bureau will never ask for Social Security numbers, bank or credit card account numbers, money or donations, or anything on behalf of a political party. Strict federal law protects your census responses. It is against the law for any Census Bureau employee to disclose or publish any census information that identifies an individual. No law enforcement agency (not the DHS, ICE, FBI, or CIA) can access or use your personal information at any time. Data collected can only be used for statistical purposes that help inform important decisions, including how much federal funding your community receives.

Responding to the Census is not only your civic duty; it also affects the amount of funding your community receives, how your community plans for the future, and your representation in government. Specifically, data from the 2020 Census are used to:

- Ensure public services and funding for schools, hospitals, and fire departments.
- Plan new homes and businesses and improve neighborhoods.
- Determine how many seats your state is allocated in the House of Representatives

The distribution of more than $675 billion in federal funds, grants, and support to states, counties, and communities are based on census data. That money is spent on roads, schools, hospitals, public works, and other vital programs.

For some people, it's not clear how they should count themselves or the people in their home. These circumstances may include people who live in more than one place, people who are moving on Census Day, people who are born or die on Census Day, or people experiencing homelessness. If you are filling out the census for your home, you should count everyone who is living there as of April 1, 2020. This includes everyone who is living and sleeping there most of the time. If someone is staying in your home on April 1 and has no usual home elsewhere, you should count them on your 2020 Census.

It is important to remember to count any children who are living with you. This includes all children who live in your home, including foster children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and the children of friends (even if they are living with you temporarily); children who split their time between homes, if they are living with you on April 1; newborn babies, even those who are born on April 1, 2020, or who are still in the hospital on this date.

MAULDIN CULTURAL CENTER REVEALS 2020-2021 THEATRE SEASON

The Mauldin Cultural Center has revealed its 2020-2021 Theatre Season, which runs from September 2020 to August 2021. The lineup was shared during a Reveal Show performance in February with songs from each production. The show also included a bonus performance of “Tomorrow” sung by Aislynn St. Clair, who plays the titular character in the Mauldin Youth Theatre’s spring 2020 production of Annie, JR.

The Mauldin Youth Theatre’s fall production will be Disney’s Moana, JR. from November 6-15, 2020, followed by their spring show Newsies, JR. from April 9-25, 2021. The Mauldin Theatre Company will have two musical revues and a theatrical production during the next season including: Family Christmas Spectacular, a holiday variety concert, from December 4-13, 2020; In The Mood, a big band musical revue from August 6-15, 2021; and Freaky Friday: the Musical from May 7-16, 2021.

The Mauldin Cultural Center began hosting theatrical productions in 2017, with the Mauldin Youth Theatre’s inaugural production of Disney’s The Lion King, JR. The Mauldin Youth Theatre has found growing support, with two shows a year typically performing to sold-out crowds. The Mauldin Theatre Company was established in the 2019-2020 season, and their first theatrical production will be Seussical in May 2020.

Tickets will be available in the fall of 2020 for next season’s productions, but tickets for this season’s remaining shows are available, including Annie, JR. (March 20-29); the Mauldin Theatre Company’s Seussical (May 15-24); and Let the Good Times Roll (August 7-16), a musical revue of music from the 50's, 60's, and 70's. Tickets, audition information, and more details about the Cultural Center’s programs can be found online at mauldinculturalcenter.org. Photos of the 2020-2021 Reveal Show can be found on the Cultural Center’s Facebook page.
The Mauldin Youth Theatre is preparing to open its spring production of Annie, JR. Based on the popular comic strip and adapted from the Tony Award-winning Best Musical, Annie JR. features everyone’s favorite little redhead in her very first adventure. With equal measures of pluck and positivity, little orphan Annie charms everyone’s hearts despite a next-to-nothing start in 1930s New York City. Annie is determined to find the parents who abandoned her years ago on the doorstep of an orphanage run by the cruel Miss Hannigan. Annie, JR. will run March 20-29; tickets are available online at the Cultural Center website.

Auditions were held in February for the Mauldin Theatre Company’s production Seussical – a fantastical musical extravaganza featuring some of your favorite Dr. Seuss characters! The 39-member cast will be the Center’s first cast comprised of both adult and youth actors. Seussical will run May 15-24, and tickets can be purchased at mauldinculturalcenter.org.

Eager patrons headed to the Mauldin Cultural Center in February to discover what’s next for the Mauldin Youth Theatre and the Mauldin Theatre Company. During the 2020-2021 Season Reveal, the Cultural team announced their theatre season lineup, which begins in November 2020 with Disney’s Moana, JR., followed by A Family Christmas Spectacular in December, Disney’s Newsies, JR. in April, Disney’s Freaky Friday in May, and will close with In the Mood featuring music from the Big Band era in August 2021. All tickets will go on sale this fall at www.mauldinculturalcenter.org. The theatre season will be accompanied by the Cultural Center’s festival season as well, which features event staples such as the Sooie. BBQ Cook-off and Beachin’ Fridays.

The Cultural Center is proud to announce the inaugural Pizza, Blues and Jazz Festival, or PB&J! On April 24, you can sink your teeth into the cheesiest, greasiest slices of pie around, wash it down with cold beer and wine, shop local artisans, and groove to some live blues and jazz, courtesy of Roosevelt Collier and the Greenville Jazz Collective!

The Mauldin 10U Boys team finished runner-up in the tournament, while the 12U Boys team defeated Charleston Peninsula in the Championship game!

Mauldin Recreation placed three girls’ teams in the Western District Tournament in the 8U, 10U, and 12U age divisions. The 10U girls team won the SCAP Western District Championship and advanced to the 10U SCAP State Basketball Tournament.

Ray W. Hopkins Senior Center

Programs at the Senior Center continue to be popular, with classes filling up fast. Tax appointment slots are all taken at the Ray Hopkins Senior Center, with seniors signing up early to get their taxes finished. Technology and iPhone workshops are being offered for those who want to stay up to date on the devices they already use, with classes; instructor Bill Vicary has found sponsors in the community to bring these classes to senior adults at no cost. The Senior Center’s Dining For Women Chapter meets on the second Wednesday of each month, with a vision of reducing poverty and promoting gender equality for women and girls in developing countries.

The Elderberries Drama Club is working on a drama titled Maulberry RFD, which will be presented on April 24 at 11:30 a.m. at the Center. Practice is in full swing, with progress being made on building sets and scenery.

The Senior Center has unveiled its Travel Show 2020, featuring out-of-town trips for the 2020 season. Travel is the number one interest of our adults and this year should be no exception. Information about upcoming trips, classes, and more can be found online at mauldinrecreation.com.
Sports Center

The Mauldin Sports Center celebrated former Mauldin mayor L.S. Green's 100th birthday this month. Green is a regular member of the Sports Center, coming in several times a week to use the recumbent bike, the walking track, and the universal machines. Happy birthday, Mayor L.S. Green!

Nearly 2,000 people participated in group fitness classes in February, in spite of flooding, tornadoes, and snow throughout the month. Classes continue to grow in the evening, including All Ball Sport and Kickboxing Circuit. The group fitness class schedule is posted monthly on the Sports Center's page at mauldinrecreation.com.

The Survival of the Fittest Challenge is going strong with 40 contestants still competing. Competitors are taking advantage of is interval-style training. Interval training is when a person alternates short bursts (approximately 30 seconds) of intense activity with longer intervals (three to four minutes) of less intense activity. One example is if a person exercises by walking, they could incorporate short bursts of jogging into their regular brisk walks. Benefits of this style of training include burning more calories, time efficiency, improving aerobic capacity, keeping boredom at bay, and best of all, no special equipment is needed. More information on classes and events at the Mauldin Sports Center can be found online at mauldinrecreation.com.

Mauldin Recreation Director Joe Lanahan is moving on from his position with the City of Mauldin. Lanahan was hired with the City in 2017 to oversee the Recreation Department, including the Mauldin Sports Center, the Ray Hopkins Senior Center, and Mauldin Recreation Athletics. Assistant Recreation Director Bart Cumalander will step in as Acting Recreation Director.

March 13th will be my final day with the City of Mauldin and I will move on to a new opportunity in the private sector. I have met some truly amazing people along the way throughout my career. Thank you to the community of Mauldin for welcoming me in 2015. Thank you to the awesome men and women of the Mauldin Fire Department for the honor of serving alongside each of you! I will always keep each of you and your families in my prayers. Regards, Bill Stewart."
