RE: Change in Law Pertaining to Possession of Firearms / Ammunition

DATE: September 10, 1997

Two recent amendments to the Gun Control Act of 1968 have significant impact on Law Enforcement Officers by restricting an officer's ability to possess a firearm. The 1996 amendment adds sections that make it illegal to provide a firearm or possess a firearm if the person; has been convicted in any court of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence...18 USC 922(d)(9);

also see 18 USC 922 (g)(9).

As defined in the new law, a "misdemeanor crime of domestic violence" means any offence, whether or not explicitly described in a statute as a crime of domestic violence, which has, as its factual basis, the use or attempt use of physical force (i.e., simple assault and battery), or the threatened use of deadly weapon, committed by the victim's current or former domestic partner, parent or guardian.

There is no time limit on the conviction. Thus, any law enforcement officer with such a disability would be in violation of Federal law if he currently possessed a firearm even if the criminal domestic violence conviction occurred prior to the passage of the law.

The 1994 amendment added sections which make it illegal to provide a firearm to any person or for that person to possess a firearm if the person; is subject to a court order that restrains such person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner of such person or child or such intimate partner or person, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the partner or child...18 USC 922 (d)(8); also see 18 USC 922 (g)(8).

The restraining order has to meet three conditions:

- A. Issued after a hearing of which the person had actual notice and an opportunity to participate;
- B. Restrains the person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury;
- C. Includes a finding that the person represents a creditable threat to the physical safety of the partner or by its terms explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the intimate partner that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily harm.

All employees who are in possession of an agency issued firearm and/or ammunition or who have received authority to carry a privately owned firearm/ammunition in the performance of his/her duties or while off duty under agency policy must complete the attached affidavit and return it to his/her supervisor by September 12, 1997. Failure to return the affidavit or to provide false information in the affidavit will subject you to agency disciplinary procedures any may be used in a prosecution for false swearing as provided by law. YOUR ANSWERS OR INFORMATION GAINED BY REASON OF YOUR ANSWERS CANNOT BE USED AGAINST YOU IN ANY CRIMINAL PROSECUTION FOR A VIOLATION OF 18 USC SECTION 922 (g) 8, or 922 (d) 9.

If you answer "yes" or "not certain" to either of the questions in the affidavit, you must immediately turn over any agency issued firearms/ ammunition to your immediate supervisor. This is a continuing obligation. Thus, if you are the subject of a restraining order or convicted of Criminal Domestic Violence in the future, you must immediately notify your supervisor.

Follow all directions. Answer each question completely. Print or type your answers. If your answer requires more space than allotted, attach a separate page and identify the answer with the corresponding number. If you print your answers and make a mistake, do not erase or block it out. Place one line through the word(s) you are choosing not to use. Remember, these areas will be the subject of a background investigation and will be covered in the polygraph examination.
