Mauldin Police Department to Host National Night Out on August 4

Event includes K-9 demonstration, free food and beverages, music, children's activities and more

MAULDIN, S.C. — The Mauldin Police Department invites residents to join officers, first responders and community partners for National Night Out on Tuesday, Aug. 4, from 5–9 p.m. at the Mauldin Cultural Center grounds at 101 E. Butler Road.

The annual event will feature fire trucks and police vehicles, a K-9 demonstration, music, dance performances and fun for the whole family, including a petting zoo, bounce houses, balloon art, face painting and more. Free food and drinks will also be available while supplies last. Guests will have the opportunity to enjoy an evening of entertainment while getting to know the officers who protect and serve the Mauldin community.

"National Night Out is a great opportunity for us to connect with the people we serve outside of emergency situations," said organizer Lt. James Madden. "This event brings neighbors, families and first responders together to build relationships, have fun and learn more about the services available through the Mauldin Police Department. We hope the community will join us for an evening that strengthens connections and celebrates our commitment to keeping Mauldin safe."

National Night Out is an annual community-building campaign that promotes police-community partnerships and neighborhood camaraderie to make communities safer and stronger. The event provides an opportunity for residents to meet local law enforcement, connect with first responders and enjoy an evening of family-friendly activities.

National Night Out is made possible through the support of local businesses and community sponsors. This year's sponsors include: State Farm – Cristina Ortiz, Robert E. Ianuario, P.C., Davis Services Inc., Pepsi of Greenville, Dobson Towing, Carolina Auto, Petty Jessie's Fun Ice, Carolina Foothills Federal Credit Union, The Edge Entertainment and CarolinaLife Chiropractic.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, view the Facebook
